About Cheri'

Cheri' Valentino has over 30 years of executive leadership experience in the public, private and non-profit sectors with a focus on business administration, operations, public policy, HR, and the criminal justice field. She is certified in and has extensive experience with employment law and employee investigations. Is a Certified "Situation Awareness Specialist" (SAS) and a Licensed and Certified Private Process Server (CPPS). Her work has included partnering with local police departments to investigate and prosecute white-collar crimes, working in tandem with police on stakeouts, and educating organizations, staff, and the public on results affecting the local community.

Cheri' also has over a decade of experience serving on and supporting boards and commissions, developing expertise in by-law creation and the development, management of, and compliance with policies and procedures.

One of the hallmarks of Cheri's reputation is her emphasis on understanding, building, and effectively managing relationships for the best outcome of all. She leverages her HR, lobbying, leadership and management experience to quickly hone in on the highest-value, most strategic areas of effort to optimize results. Her blend of public, private, and non-profit experience uniquely equips her to translate seamlessly between industries and understand client interests from all angles.

Cheri' is known as a trusted advisor and results-driven leader.
